Doctoral Seminar, 2/25/2021

RESEARCH GRANT PARTICIPATION

Active Support

Using Wearable Technology to Develop Stress-Reduction Intervention for Black Women Experiencing Intimate Partner Violence

11/2022 – 10/2024; Google Health Equity Initiative

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $87,497

Main Grant Objective: This study aims to assess objective and subjective stress responses and sources of stress among Black women experiencing intimate partner violence using ecological momentary assessments and wearable devices.

Role: As PI, I will be responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Using Implementation Science to Increase PrEP Uptake among African American Women in the South – Critical Life Event Supplement

04/2022 – 01/2023; NIMHD K01MD015005-03S1

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $54,000

Main Grant Objective: This study aims to evaluate a trauma-informed, PrEP Implementation Toolkit on patient-level HIV prevention outcomes.

Role: As PI, I will be responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Using Implementation Science to Increase PrEP Uptake among African American Women in the South – HIV/AIDS Supplement

09/2021 – 01/2023; NIMHD K01MD015005-02S1

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $268,670

Main Grant Objective: This study aims to evaluate a trauma-informed, PrEP Implementation Toolkit on patient-level HIV prevention outcomes.

Role: As PI, I will be responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Intimate Partner Violence and PrEP Uptake among African American Women in HIV Hotspots: Developing Trauma-Responsive Interventions

07/2021 – 06/2023; NIMHD L32MD016555

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $16,498.04

Main Grant Objective: This program sets the stage for my independent program of research eliminating racial disparities in women's HIV infections by examining the impact of IPV and other determinants shape PrEP uptake and care among African American women.

Role: As PI, I will be responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Development and Evaluation of a PrEP Decision Aid for Women Seeking Domestic Violence Services in Baltimore

09/2021 – 07/2024; NIMH R34MH127986

Principal Investigators: Tiara C. Willie and Jaimie Meyer

Funding Amount: $757,237

Main Grant Objective: This Type II hybrid effectiveness-implementation study seeks to design, implement, and evaluate a PrEP decision aid for Black women seeking domestic violence services.

Role: As Co-PI, I am responsible for the co-management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Trauma-Informed HIV Prevention for Black Women in Baltimore

09/2021 – 04/2024; NIAID P30AI094189-S (CFAR Supplement)

Principal Investigators: Tiara C. Willie and Richard Chaisson

Funding Amount: $323,251

Main Grant Objective: This study aims to develop, test, and evaluate of a trauma-informed, PrEP Implementation Toolkit in clinics and outreach programs in Baltimore.

Role: As Co-PI, I am responsible for the co-management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Using Implementation Science to Increase PrEP Uptake among African American Women in the South

06/2020 – 01/2025; NIMHD K01MD015005

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $675,675

Main Grant Objective: This study aims to develop, test, and evaluate a trauma-informed, PrEP Implementation Toolkit in community healthcare clinics in the South.

Role: As PI, I will be responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Project Horizon: Hydrogel Injectable Depot System for Next-Generation Long-Acting HIV Prevention and Contraception

02/2019 – 03/2024; NIAID R33AI142685

Principal Investigator: Meredith Clark

Funding Amount: $1,500,146

Main Grant Objective: To develop a novel next-generation long-acting multipurpose prevention technology for HIV prevention and unintended pregnancy.

Role: As Site Principal Investigator, I am involved in assisting with the design of cognitive interviews and discrete choice experiments.

Completed Support

Understanding and Addressing COVID's Impact on Housing among Black IPV Survivors: Implications for Regional-Specific, Culturally-Sensitive Solutions

8/2020 – 7/2021; Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $20,000

Main Grant Objective: This mixed-methods study aimed to understand the processes by which Black intimate partner violence survivors' accessed, obtained, and maintained affordable housing during the pandemic.

Role: As PI, I was responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Understanding the Role of Intimate Partner Violence in Adherence and Retention in Care among Women Living with HIV in the Deep South

7/2019 – 10/2021; Private funding

Principal Investigator: Kandis Backus

Funding Amount: In-Kind Support

Main Grant Objective: This mixed-methods study aimed to characterize the impact of intimate partner violence on women's engagement in HIV care and treatment.

Role: As Co-I, I was involved in assisting with study design and data collection related to qualitative methods and intimate partner violence.

Physiology of Microaggressions and Other Daily Hassles among African American Women with Histories of Intimate Partner Violence

7/2019 - 6/2020; NIDA R25DA035692 (pilot project)

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $10,000

Main Grant Objective: The purpose of this study was to examine the physiological implications of IPV, gendered racism and other daily hassles among African American women who experienced IPV.

Role: As PI, I was responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Optimizing PrEP's Potential in Non-Clinical Settings: Development and Evaluation of a PrEP Decision Aid for Women Seeking Domestic Violence Services

11/2019 – 11/2020; NIMH P30MH062294 (pilot project)

Principal Investigators: Jaimie Meyer and Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $30,000

Main Grant Objective: This Type II hybrid effectiveness-implementation study sought to design, implement, and evaluate a PrEP decision aid for women seeking domestic violence services.

Role: As Co-PI, I was responsible for the co-management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

The Social, Structural and Clinical Context of HIV Prevention among African American Women Residing in Jackson, Mississippi

5/2019 – 6/2020; NIMH R25MH083620 (pilot project)

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $10,000

Main Grant Objective: This project identified social, structural, and clinical factors associated with PrEP uptake among heterosexual African American women residing in Jackson, Mississippi.

Role: As PI, I was responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

UNITED to Overcome: A Mother-Daughter Intimate Partner Violence Intervention Using Interactive Novellas

06/2017 – 05/2020; Women's Health Research at Yale (pilot project)

Principal Investigators: Trace Kershaw and Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $35,000

Main Grant Objective: This study aimed to develop and test a family-based intervention that uses interactive graphic novellas delivered via mobile app to improve the mental health and reduce IPV risk among mothers and adolescent daughters affected by IPV.

Role: As Co-PI, I was responsible for the co-management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

She's PrEPared: The Impact of Intimate Partner Violence on Women's Engagement in the PrEP Care Continuum

9/2017 -11/2018; NIMH F31MH113508

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $66,198

Main Grant Objective: This study examined the association between IPV and women's engagement in the PrEP care continuum.

Role: As PI, I was responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

She's PrEPared: Partner Violence and Women's Engagement in PrEP Care

01/2017 – 01/2018; Indiana University Rural Center for AIDS/STD Prevention

Principal Investigator: Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $2,500

Main Grant Objective: This study used qualitative methods to identify and understand how IPV affected women's decisions and attitudes towards PrEP.

Role: As PI, I was responsible for the management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Her PrEP, Her Way: Feasibility of a Multi-Sector Collaboration to Deliver PrEP to IPV-Exposed Women

04/2016 – 03/2018; NIMH P30MH062294 (pilot project)

Principal Investigators: Trace Kershaw and Tiara C. Willie

Funding Amount: $30,000

Main Grant Objective: This study examined individual, interpersonal and social influences on PrEP acceptability among IPV-exposed women; and on a multi-sector PrEP collaboration between IPV service organizations and healthcare providers.

Role: As Co-PI, I was responsible for the co-management of the research project including the integrity of the design, conduct, and reporting of the project.

Expanding Women's Reproductive Health Options in Small Urban Areas: Development and Evaluation of a Clinical Implementation Program to Integrate HIV Biomedical Prevention into Reproductive Health Services

04/2016 – 03/2018; NIMH P30MH062294 (pilot project)

Principal Investigator: Sarah K. Calabrese

Funding Amount: $30,000

Main Grant Objective: This study was a collaborative initiative with regional leaders of Planned Parenthood of Southern New England to develop, deliver and evaluate a program integrating PrEP into the reproductive health services.

Role: As a Predoctoral Trainee, I was responsible for attending research team meetings, providing feedback on study design and leading scientific inquiries.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Personal statement of research and practice goals, objectives, and impact

A social epidemiologist examining the etiology and health consequences of gender-based violence among marginalized populations, domestically and globally. Guided by the social-ecological model, my research explores individual-, relationship-, community-, and societal-level determinants of gender-based violence and the health implications of gender-based violence in order to develop interventions to reduce violence and improve mental, sexual, and reproductive health.
